CITY IN BRIEF.

P. Lieber & Co.'s Pilsener Beer on draught to-day.

The Mayor will have a large docket this morning, the police having made nearly forty arrests since Saturday night.

The fifth entertainment of the Macnecor will be given to-morrow evening at their hall on East Washington street.

The burning of a lot of trash in the rear of Drew & Wasson's coal yard caused a useless run for the Fire Department at 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

James Hardesty, recently arrested for shoving "coney stuff," is at the point of death. He will be removed from the jail to the City Hospital to-day.

Dr. Munhall's Bible readings at Y. M. C. A. rooms are intensely interesting and most highly practical. The public is most cordially invited to enjoy them.

The first game of a series will be played at the Meridian Rink to-night between the Lafayette League Club and the Meridians. The Star City lads have not lost a game this season, and their friends confidently assert that the Meridians will not score a single goal during the three games to be played. This kind of talk serves to arouse our boys from slumber, consequently an exciting game may be witnessed to-night.

P. Lieber & Co.'s Pilsener Beer on draught to-day.

Attempted Suicide.

Mrs. John Vice, of 17 Henry street, attempted suicide last evening by taking morphine. She had a quarrel with her husband over some private matters, and because of his failure to satisfy her with regard to some matters contained in a letter written him from Greenacres she decided upon self-destruction. She was seen to take the morphine by her husband's mother, and emetics were soon given. By 10 o'clock last night she was recovering. Vice and his wife have been married but about a year, and they have one child. Mrs. Vice is eighteen years of age.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE AMY GORDON COMIC OPERA COMPANY AT ENGLISH'S.

Commencing with to-night, the Amy Gordon Comic Opera Company play a week's engagement at English's, producing all of Gilbert & Sullivan's sparkling and witty operas, "Pirates of Penzance," "Mascotte," "Olivette," "Billy Taylor," "Girofle Girofia," "Fra Diavolo." The latter will be put on to-night and Wednesday matinee; "Girofle Girofia," Tuesday night; "Mascotte," Wednesday night; "Olivette," Thursday night; "Billy Taylor," Friday night and Saturday matinee; "Pirates of Penzance," Saturday night. Amy Gordon occupies the same place in burlesque opera at the present day as did Oates some years ago. She is possessed of a beautiful form, natural grace and a melodious voice. Her support numbers such people as Mr. Paul Baum, Mrs. W. A. Morgan, Mr. C. Gilbert, Miss Adelle Barker and several other well-known artists of ability. The wardrobe and stage effects are mostly new and costly. Much care has been taken to present each opera in a style and manner to insure success. Miss Amy Gordon and Mr. W. A. Morgan are the leading people of this admirable company, and those that have seen them will not hesitate to recommend them as singers and actors who strive and never fail to please an audience, no matter how large. At the low price of admission—fifteen, twenty-five and thirty-five cents—the house should be packed at each performance.

NOTES.

Jim Cooke contemplates devastating the Cockrobin towns with a jim crow show this summer.

The Hyers Sisters Combination opens a week's engagement at Lyra Hall to-night, presenting "The Blackville Twins."

The "Three Wives to One Husband" Company play in Cincinnati this week. It will not be surprising if some of our "best-known" are missed before the week is over. Joe Gordon is "not saying a word."

The automatic wonder, Tauber's famous Columbus clock, which is to be on exhibition at the Dime Museum all this week, is said to be the marvel of the age. It is even a greater mechanical wonder than either the Passion or Strasburg clocks.

Dickson's Grand will remain closed until Wednesday evening, when the talented and popular little actress, Minnie Maddern, returns for two performances of her popular success, "Caprice." She will have the support of her original New York company, among whom are Mr. Henry Miller, T. J. Herndon, Percy Brooks, Harold Russell, Cyril Scott, Charles King, Robert Sinclair, F. W. Strong, Mary Madden, Lillian Walack and May Wheeler. The sale will open this morning at the theater box office, and should be large.

The engagement of the McCaull Opera company in "Falka" at the Grand the last two nights of this week is attracting unusual attention. "Falka" is said to have the brightest music and most laughable libretto of any modern opera. The company number over fifty people, among whom are such well known opera bouffe and lyric artists as Miss Bertha Ricci, Miss Ray Samuels, Miss Lillie Vinton, Miss Annie Leslie, Miss Alice May, Miss Helen Standish, Miss Leona Clarke, George C. Bonifacio, Jr., H. A. Orville, Hubert Wilke, H. Macdonough, Alfred Klein, H. Roland, J. R. Smith and others.

Major J. E. Pond has assumed the management of Minnie Maddern and her play, "Caprice," for the balance of the season. We are glad of this, and earnestly hope that this brightest of all the young stars will finish her season with the success she deserves. Of all the lauded-to-the-skies lady stars of the present dramatic epoch, none are more deserving of hearty recognition from the theater-going public than little Minnie Maddern. Gifted to a remarkable degree, modest in claims, she gives you more than you expect. Her play, "Caprice," is as worthy of dramatic literature as she herself is worthy to the stage she adorns.

The Dime Museum will open the week this afternoon at 1 o'clock with the strongest bill of the season, the principal features being Colonel Cooper, colossal English giant; Eugene Feralto, giant skeleton; Henrietta Moritz, mastodon midget; George James, monster fat boy; the Langan Juvenile Prodiges; German Rose Wax-works; Millie Owens, hirsute wonder from Missouri; Marvello, wonder-worker; Allen and Martin, musical artists. On the stage, Edwards' "Drolleries," a comedy organization embracing Maud Walker, Maggie Evans, May Smith, Frank Lester, Joseph F. Campbell, C. A. Chalfant, James S. Edwards, will present the conceit "Drolleries."

P. Lieber & Co.'s Pilsener Beer on draught to-day.

LEGISLATIVE NOTES.

After making several verbal changes in the House bill providing means for carrying on the work of the new State House, it was passed by the Senate.

The House Saturday adopted the Senate concurrent resolution to employ an expert to examine and compare the measurements of the walls of the Asylum for the Insane in connection with the John Martin claim.

Senator Marshall's bill fixing the time of holding courts in the Twenty-first, Twenty-second and Forty-seventh Judicial Circuits, and providing for prosecuting attorneys in the Twenty-second and Forty-seventh Circuits, and a judge in the latter, was passed under a suspension of the rules.

The House resolved itself into Committee of the Whole Saturday morning to consider the General Appropriation bill, the question being on the amendment of Mr. Reeves that the item of appropriating $25,000 for new buildings at Purdue be amended by substituting one dollar. After acting on various amendments, the committee passed to the consideration of other items in the bill, thus leaving Purdue without any appropriation for new buildings. The appropriation to the State Normal was increased from $7,000 to $10,000.

INDIANA TRAVELING MEN.

They Meet and Make Arrangements for the Organization of a State Association—Several Standing Committees Appointed.

There was a meeting of Indiana Traveling men at the Grand Hotel yesterday afternoon to make preparations for the organization of a State Association. There were a large number of commercial travelers present from all parts of the State, and the meeting was called to order shortly after 3 o'clock by Frank A. Hoyt. The call was read and Mr. Hoyt made a brief speech setting forth the advantages to be derived by the formation of an association, after which there was a general discussion upon the subject. Following the discussion the meeting proceeded to transact a large amount of business of minor importance, and the Chair appointed the following standing committees and boards:

ADVISORY BOARD.

W. L. Baker, H. C. Thornton, F. M. Northway, J. B. Fugb, C. S. Spencer, Bruce Carr, C. E. Vandervoort, G. M. Geiger, C. H. Miller, J. A. Macburney, C. L. Chittenden, H. B. Makepeace, T. J. Cook and C. M. Brown, of Indianapolis.

PRESS COMMITTEE.

E. J. Robinson, Vincennes; J. B. Keating, Fort Wayne; W. J. Robie, Richmond; W. L. Baker, Indianapolis; F. D. Olen, Terre Haute; E. A. Fisher, Evansville.

HOTEL COMMITTEE.

J. T. Stahl, Indianapolis; W. Hazalrigg, Evansville; Louis Stone, Terre Haute; E. A. Noyes, Lafayette; Standford Redish, Richmond; E. J. Noel, Fort Wayne.

TRUNKS AND BAGGAGE COMMITTEE.

L. Ulley, Logansport; P. M. Gallahue, Indianapolis; A. M. Fitch, Seymour; C. E. Marsh, Evansville; Charles Foulke, Fort Wayne; C. A. Meeker, Lafayette.

RAILROAD COMMITTEE.

J. S. Jordan, Indianapolis; H. A. Stewart, New Albany; W. B. Purcell, Terre Haute; J. A. Macburney, Indianapolis; J. W. Patterson, Richmond; Amos Ritchey, Fort Wayne. Immediately upon the reading of the committee it was resolved to hold another meeting on the first Saturday in May, when all final arrangements for a permanent organization will be perfect. The meeting then adjourned.

Tossing the "Beautiful."

"Throwing snow balls and soliciting inside of the Union Depot," were the charges that stood opposite the names of Patsey Macmanas and John White on the slate at the Central Station yesterday. The prisoners are bootblacks, and when arrested were dividing the time between soliciting shins and tossing the "beautiful" at each other. The coppers have not yet quit denouncing the recent frigid weather, and when they saw John and Patsey enjoying themselves in this manner they nipped them without a moment's delay.

"The Singing Pilgrim."

Philip Phillips, "the singing pilgrim," will give an entertainment at the Fletcher Place M. E. Church on April 1, 2, 3 and 4, commencing each evening at 8 o'clock. This entertainment comprises over 500 colored views, colored by London artists, magnified and illuminated by new powerful lime light, illustrating the scenery in the great cities of the Old and New Worlds. The entertainments will be interspersed with songs.
